Example of Advanced Practitioner Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking to fill the role of advanced practitioner. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for advanced practitioner

- Maintains an average of 15 minutes with each client to maintain efficient clinic flow
- Participates in the evaluation and selection of flyers and brochures available for our clients
- Assist in the orientation of new employees to your specialty
- Precepts nursing and medical students or residents as requested by leadership
- Perform travel in relation to duties
- Serve as relief nurse in clinics when an extreme nursing shortage exist
- Work collaboratively as part of a mobile clinical team of advanced practice colleagues, physicians, medical assistants, and case managers in each county to bring integrated care to the most in need
- Provide effective primary and chronic care for complex medical issues
- Manage population of patients longitudinally through high-touch interactions and delivery of clinical services in the home and across other sites of care
- Report to a physician lead in each county and join a national group of advanced practice clinicians serving Medicare and Medicaid patients

Qualifications for advanced practitioner

- Nurse Practitioner certified (or ability to sit for certification exam within three (3) months) through ANA or equivalent
- Current state Advanced Practice Nurse Prescriber certified or eligible for certification

- 1-3 years of working in an endocrinology or specialty clinic preferred (new grads accepted)
- Parker Adventist Hospital is a Level II Trauma Center Parker Adventist Hospital, located at E-470 and Parker Road, offers leading medical experts, cutting edge technology and a broad array of clinical services