Example of Process Control Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of process control. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for process control

- Initiate technical development and / or lead / participate in projects in order to improve safety conditions, quality and more effective use of equipment, spare parts and materials
- Maintain communication within and with relevant departments in order to find the most timely and cost effective solutions
- Develop and conduct training for applicable personnel on assigned areas and equipment
- Improve plant operation and performance through Process Automation concepts and through application of improvement methodologies
- Documented role and participation on multiple-function teams
- Lead administrator for site's OSI/ PI historian system
- Supervise (indirectly) Sr
- Automation support of Bioreactors, Centrifuges, Autoclaves, Glass washers, UF skids, Chromatography skids, Air Handling Units, WFI stills, Chillers, Reverse Osmosis skids
- Demonstrates role model behavior to support diversity, leadership, teamwork and customer focus
- Self-motivated with the ability to initiate and adapt new ideas

Qualifications for process control

- Anticipates pressure points and obstacles without prompting
- Working knowledge of MCO 4790.2c, MCO 4400.150, TM 4700-15, TMDE,

- Must have good written and oral communication skills, sound interpersonal relationship building skills computer skills
- As a senior leader of the company, qualified candidates for this role also must demonstrate the ability to lead change, effective communication, and high-performance teams
- Knowledgeable with maintenance best practices (vibration analysis, oil analysis,) preferred
- This role has an estimated 5% travel requirement