- Account management and relationship building with existing partner brands, evaluating existing partnerships and analysing ways to amplify the relationship
- Advanced Account and relationship management experience
- Passionate and experienced customer service delivery management
- Project Management qualification or proven experience in managing enterprise wide solution project deployment
- Effective resources management and people coaching skills
- Results oriented, leadership, client-facing and diplomacy skills
- Database knowledge using ad hoc reporting tools to extract data and create project reports

Thank you in advance for reviewing my candidacy for this position.
