Example of Sleep Tech Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking for a sleep tech. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for sleep tech

- On ones own initiative, assists in writing procedures, giving in-services recognized as necessary by the individual
- Maintains knowledge of infrequently used equipment and ordered patient therapeutics
- Takes responsibility for maintain supplies & equipment in all areas of the Sleep Center
- Actively participates in Quality Assurance departmental activities and objectives
- Clean and maintain all polysomnographic equipment according to department policy
- Prepares & calibrates testing equipment, prepares patient for testing, establishes and documents baseline values, follows polysomnographic testing procedures (MSLT, MWT, parasomnia studies, PAP, oxygen titration) to ensure quality data acquisition
- Documents routine observations, including sleep stages, clinical events, changes in procedures and other significant events in order to facilitate scoring and interpretations of results
- Perform polysomnographic data acquisition and intervention(s) per procedural protocols
- Scores polysomnographic records according to accepted center guidelines
- Completion of a program approved by the Board of Registered Polysomnographic Technologist or a successor accrediting authority

Qualifications for sleep tech

- Registered Respiratory Therapist (RRT) with 2 years' experience in sleep diagnostics
- Certified Respiratory Therapist or RRT preferred
- Experience with accreditation readiness preferred
- Active Registered Polysomnograph Technologist (RPSGT) credential OR Registered Respiratory Therapist OR Certified Pulmonary Function Technologist
- College graduate with a two or four year degree program
- Registered by the Board of Registered Polysomnographic Technologist (BRPST)