Dear Sawyer Padberg,

In response to your job posting for account services manager, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

Previously, I was responsible for input to UK and Global marketing to develop and deliver Field services based Marketing campaigns, trade shows and events.

Please consider my qualifications and experience:

- Competent in the use of Microsoft office, to deliver professional client communications including Word, PowerPoint and Excel
- Proactive and accountable with the aim to always drive positive client satisfaction
- Self-motivated, problem solve who is driven to succeed
- High level of commercial awareness – identifying opportunities, structuring a deal, negotiating and closing sales
- B2B Field sales experience ideally within the software market
- Negotiating, problem solving, collaborating and other relationship-building skills to deliver win-win outcomes for clients and company
- Detailed knowledge of data (analysis, processes, systems), retail electric service and experience analyzing related utility tariffs and regulations
- Relationship-building through confident and responsive communication

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Avery Padberg
