

Accounting Lecturer Cover Letter

56530 Danyelle Groves New Bradfordside, ME 65160

Dear Robin Langosh,

In response to your job posting for accounting lecturer, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

In my previous role, I was responsible for subject matter expertise for payroll and pension processes and respond to accounting queries escalated from internal stakeholders.

I reviewed the requirements of the job opening and I believe my candidacy is an excellent fit for this position. Some of the key requirements that I have extensive experience with include:

- To conduct research leading to the production of research outputs and research outcomes
- To publish high impact research in quality journals, either as a sole author or in collaboration with others, and to devise, direct and develop research projects generating external research funding
- To take responsibility for overseeing, developing and promoting innovative teaching and learning approaches and material, which create interest, understanding and enthusiasm amongst students
- To supervise, mentor and guide the work of staff and research students
- Professional certification or experience sufficient to maintain Instructional Practitioner (IP) status under AACSB accreditation standards
- Comfortable with electronic teaching tools such as Learning Management Systems (e.g., Quercus), PowerPoint, on-line collaboration tools (Blogs, Wikis, Discussion Boards, Webinars, or Video-conferencing)
- A commitment to the success of students and programs at the University
- Relevant professional certification (CPA for example) and experience teaching at the college, university or community college level

Thank you in advance for taking the time to read my cover letter and to review my resume.
