Dear Oakley Willms,

In response to your job posting for account sales, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

Previously, I was responsible for best practices for all products and services, with client growth and retention as top priorities.

Please consider my qualifications and experience:

- Knowledge and passion for Linux and open source technology
- Broad understanding of the State government acquisition process
- Be a true hunter and enjoy the thrill and challenge of acquiring new customers
- Experience in the general aviation industry preferred
- Knowledge of Federal Aviation Regulations, including Part 145 Repair Station experience preferred
- Fundamental understanding of automation system design and motion control as applied to conveyor, assembly, packaging, food processing, medical equipment, automotive industries
- Expert level knowledge of sales
- Solid skills in various related software packages (Microsoft Office Products)

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Rowan Harris
