Dear Dakota Huels,

In response to your job posting for acquisitions manager, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

Previously, I was responsible for team, platform, and organizational leadership guidance and instruction around digital Advertising and emerging media needs from an operational perspective.

My experience is an excellent fit for the list of requirements in this job:

- Experience with construction and project-based business transactions and processes preferred
- Expert knowledge of accounting principles (U.S. GAAP)
- Experience with acquisitions and intregrations of businesses
- Experience of new business selling is essential
- Used to achieving target on a quarter by quarter basis
- Excellent property market knowledge and extensive contact list
- Experience working closely with project teams including external consultants and contractors
- Project Management skills, certified preferred

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Oakley Botsford
