Dear Rowan Reichert,

In response to your job posting for associate creative director, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

In my previous role, I was responsible for leadership to ensure that Regulatory Affairs attracts, develops, and retains the best people and fosters an environment that motivates a diverse team to fully use its capabilities in achieving desired business results.

Please consider my experience and qualifications for this position:

- Expertise in achieving results and productivity across all marketing channels
- Superior knowledge of web design tools, programs, trends and technologies
- Strong design background preferred
- Knowledgeable of design practices such as, brand development, responsive and digital design social media platforms, on-line marketing and trends
- Familiarity with printing, print production and imaging and fulfilment
- Be collaborative, flexible and open-minded
- Be prepared to discuss previous projects and share samples of design/marketing work
- Experience managing a team of copywriters

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Emerson Bogan
