

Business Development Sales Manager Cover Letter

89368 Kuhic Divide Christiansenland, NJ 60527-4615

Dear Lennon Turner,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the business development sales manager position.

In my previous role, I was responsible for best-in-class service and win artists' business based on Essential Artist Services' inherent capabilities in brand development, account management and technology systems.

I reviewed the requirements of the job opening and I believe my candidacy is an excellent fit for this position. Some of the key requirements that I have extensive experience with include:

- Expert knowledge of Clinical Microbiology
- Clear understanding of the Scandinavian academic and industrial markets, together with a proven track record of working with technology-based products in those markets
- No disqualification from travel to any country
- Proven track record in interaction with customers involving capital sales and applications support within the life sciences and analytical instrument markets
- Work with internal colleagues to define and meet customer needs
- Communicate effectively with clients and internal organizations of diverse technical and management background both vertically and horizontally in support of Business Development objectives
- Most important - someone who knows how to develop business and gain new clients
- Background with direct and/or indirect outside sales organizations

Thank you in advance for taking the time to read my cover letter and to review my resume.

Sincerely,
