Dear Justice Keebler,

In response to your job posting for client tech support, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

In my previous role, I was responsible for support for a far-ranging list of technologies including Linux, Microsoft Windows and macOS, Google productivity suite including Gmail, Calendar, Drive, Blue Jeans Meetings, Desk phones, mobile devices, WIFI, etc.

I reviewed the requirements of the job opening and I believe my candidacy is an excellent fit for this position. Some of the key requirements that I have extensive experience with include:

- Skills in Oracle, .NET and Network Management
- Acts as an advisor to subordinate staff members
- Conocimiento tecnico bsico en computadoras
- Superb client service orientation -excellent interpersonal, written, and oral communication skills
- Aptitude to identify problems, research and analyze the situation, and make appropriate recommendations/decisions
- Working Knowledge of computer products
- Technical English for Accounting
- CompTIA A+ desirable

I really appreciate you taking the time to review my application for the position of client tech support.

Sincerely,

Skyler Bogan
