Dear Frankie O'Connell,

In response to your job posting for clinical supplies, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

In my previous role, I was responsible for vendor management, inclusive of ensuring key Clinical Trial Supplies deliverables are met and financial parameters of contracts are upheld.

My experience is an excellent fit for the list of requirements in this job:

- Specification review and approval
- Clear understanding of related SOPs, cGMPs and GLPs and as necessary to accomplish daily tasks
- Pharmaceutical GMP
- Demonstrated leadership, incl
- Demonstrated excellence of skill in communicating (oral and written) effectively with diverse individuals/ groups at all levels
- Experience managing contract packaging and labeling organizations (strongly preferred)
- Demonstrable experience in Interactive Response Technology (IRT) or clinical supplies
- Experience in working help desk or customer support role

Thank you for considering me to become a member of your team.

Sincerely,

Peyton Barton
