

Cloud Sales Cover Letter

74999 Carlton TrailNorth Jimmiemouth, AL 04788

Dear Sutton Dach,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the cloud sales position.

In my previous role, I was responsible for technical leadership to the Cloud Software development team in implementing multiple cloud projects.

I reviewed the requirements of the job opening and I believe my candidacy is an excellent fit for this position. Some of the key requirements that I have extensive experience with include:

- Strong Salesforce experience, including developing comprehensive dashboards and reports
- Effective and strong communicator, especially with sales personalities
- Self-aware, transparent, collaborative always looking to improve and open to feedback
- Effective in an unstructured environment requiring new perspective and creative approaches
- Understanding that change is constant and known to embrace it
- Comfortable completing projects requiring individual initiative and flexibility in tight time frames with minimal supervision
- Work with employees at all levels of the organization in an open office setting and a highly collaborative environment with a high growth, start-up mentality
- Being familiar with development in cloud environments, based on AWS, Microsoft Azure or Google

Thank you for considering me to become a member of your team.

Sincerely,

Hayden Fahey
