Dear Zion Blick,

In response to your job posting for dietitian, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

Previously, I was responsible for direct comprehensive nutrition services by using evidence-based clinical standards of care to assess complex patient nutritional needs.

Please consider my qualifications and experience:

- Individual outpatient nutrition counseling sessions, approx
- Documenting all nutrition visits and nutrition interventions using electronic medical record and maintains paperwork consistent with department and regulatory agency requirements
- Providing appropriate documentation to referring healthcare providers, as needed
- Assessing and documenting patient compliance
- Updating online database and tracking patient outcomes
- Participating in weekly multidisciplinary bariatric patient care rounds
- Regular correspondence and collaboration with CWC physicians and nurses, psychiatric team
- Maintaining timely follow-up correspondence with patients via email and/or telephone, as needed

Thank you for considering me to become a member of your team.

Sincerely,

Campbell Moore
