

Domestic Violence Advocate Cover Letter

30053 Lowell DivideHarberhaven, IL 49401-5028

Dear Marion Hand,

In response to your job posting for domestic violence advocate, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

In my previous role, I was responsible for consultation and technical assistance regarding screening for and intervening in domestic violence situations, risk assessment and safety planning, assessing the appropriateness of and accessing resources, increasing safety.

My experience is an excellent fit for the list of requirements in this job:

- Experience facilitating workshops and/or trainings
- Demonstrated experience providing services to diverse cultural and/or linguistic communities
- Demonstrated strong proficiency in Microsoft Office applications, and in general strong comfort with the use of emerging technologies
- Extensive experience successfully working with police and courts
- Experience to include crisis intervention, safety planning, and advocacy
- Experience and training with domestic violence or sexual assault organization
- Demonstrated skills facilitating workshops or professional trainings on issues related to sexual assault and domestic violence including training police personnel
- Developed self-care strategies and capacity to sustain providing services to trauma survivors

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Dylan Hickle
