Dear Parker Parker,

In response to your job posting for FX trader, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

In my previous role, I was responsible for analysis of market drivers, mainly in Developed markets.

Please consider my qualifications and experience:

- Coordinates and facilitates special projects
- Trading of other asset classes would be looked on favourably
- Able to work for periods of time without supervision
- Interest in global finance/macroeconomic fundamentals highly advantageous
- Demonstrated interest in global capital markets, specifically with reference to Foreign Exchange markets
- Preferably an internship/work experience on FX trading desk in asset management industry
- Strong quantitative and analytical skills, attention to detail, and a sense of urgency are vital
- Experience in G10 &/or EM currencies

Thank you for considering me to become a member of your team.

Sincerely,

Max Spinka
