Dear Tatum Leuschke,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the lead-office position.

In my previous role, I was responsible for insights / consultation on how to best leverage web assets and capabilities to effectively guide and design an integrated web site journey that leads to a world class customer experience and marketing qualifies leads.

My experience is an excellent fit for the list of requirements in this job:

- Portfolio Managers, and coordinate directly with Operations team to resolve
- Ensures the timely and accurate setup of new accounts on investment management systems coordinating with the New Account Opening team
- Provide direct coverage for absences on the London FOS team
- Manage key internal stakeholders on program performance
- Experience within a PMO lead capacity
- Exposure to site acquisition, build is an advantage
- Minimum 6 months customer service related experience
- Working Knowledge Access Database

I really appreciate you taking the time to review my application for the position of lead-office.

Sincerely,

Stevie Morissette
