

Manager, Leadership Development Cover Letter

4119 Rosario Shores New Isobel, NE 25898-9772

Dear Haven Brakus,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the manager, leadership development position.

Previously, I was responsible for critical production support of your team's existing production processes to ensure reliability of the modeling and scoring platforms.

Please consider my experience and qualifications for this position:

- Creative and energetic individual who functions well within a fast-paced, team environment, which includes cross-department collaboration
- Increase the number of Society volunteers focused on Leadership Events by recognizing and recruiting talent
- Engage volunteers through meaningful and impactful work that is well defined and structured by employing the strategies, tools and resources in their local market
- Ensure volunteer behaviors are aligned with Society Operating Principles
- Ensure that volunteers are fueling the success and expanding the capacity by coaching to and assisting staff with building action-oriented volunteer leadership committees for fundraising (acquisition of sponsors and individual donors) and event experience (the quality of the experience a company and/or individual has from the time they commit through completion of the event) that will be led by the market Leadership Events staff
- Cultivate volunteers, seeks and provides feedback and shares opportunities for reciprocal growth and learning
- Are able to lead a team design, develop and deliver valuable innovations in learning & leadership development
- Able to manage and influence others to align around and accomplish goals, resilient and persistent when faced with obstacles

Sincerely,

Sutton Keebler
