Dear Morgan Doyle,

In response to your job posting for manager medical, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

In the previous role, I was responsible for clinical support to health care professionals to ensure the delivery of quality health care services.

My experience is an excellent fit for the list of requirements in this job:

- Periodically update medical plan to reflect the change of the competitive landscape and critical business strategy change if appropriate
- On time, quality and within budget delivery of the relevant part of the medical plan
- Actively build up internal cross-functional partnership for assigned product(s)
- By acting as point of primary contact from medical science team for strategy and execution discussions on the assigned product(s)
- Work with other medical functions, including medical information service, epidemiology/outcome research, medical education, medical publications, pharmacovigilance to ensure the optimal execution of the medical plan
- Work with commercial counterparts in supporting commercial activities for the assigned product(s), including medical input in the marketing strategy, external professional interaction, sales training, promotional material generation
- Develop and maintain a network of opinion leaders and experts in the assigned therapeutic areas in order to maintain and reinforce the scientific leadership of the Company under the coaching of Senior Medical Affairs Manager/Group Medical Manager
- Make a significant contribution to the brand team to ensure effective and timely implementation of the operational plan

Thank you for taking your time to review my application.
