Dear Frankie Streich,

Please consider me for the manufacturing analyst opportunity. I am including my resume that lists my qualifications and experience.

In the previous role, I was responsible for direction to the manufacturing leadership with information on process improvement opportunities, resource requirements, and general manufacturing "organizational health".

Please consider my qualifications and experience:

- Apply supply chain best practices to achieve production stabilization
- Strong computer skills in MS Office (Excel, Word, Access), JD Edwards, Hyperion, Business Intelligence (BI) or related
- Senior Manager, Group Manufacturing Finance
- Prepares the consolidated global capital reporting for all scenarios (Actuals, Forecasts and Budgets) for the CSL Group and the Business Technology function as well and the semi-annual Board reporting
- Works closely with all the legal entities within the CSL Group the Executive Management team in supporting the capital approval process, including performing the initial finance review and managing a tracking process to ensure all parties are kept aware of the status of capital projects in the approval queue
- Monitors the submission of post implementation reviews for significant capital projects, reviewing them for financial considerations and routing them for review by key stakeholders.\Prepares the cash flow commentary to support capital spending for all scenarios (Actuals, Forecasts and Budgets)
- Preparation of monthly inventory cover calculation and performing analysis to monitor and explain impacts of any changes in inventory cover on the Group results particularly for each forecast and budget
- Supports the intragroup profit calculations for the Biotherapeutics Group, in addition to assisting with recurring manual calculations and adjustments

Thank you in advance for reviewing my candidacy for this position.

Sincerely,

Dylan Bechtelar
