

Marketing Communications Coordinator Cover Letter

702 Krajcik WaysWest Dewey, IL 62854

Dear Max Orn,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the marketing communications coordinator position.

Previously, I was responsible for day-to-day support with PowerPoint presentation design as well as print, digital and multimedia such as website and mobile application mockups, video editing, flyer layouts, and animation.

My experience is an excellent fit for the list of requirements in this job:

- Superior commitment to detail and accuracy
- Understanding of current technical and social markets
- Express a willingness to learn and to be flexible
- Familiarity with Google Analytics and performance metrics
- Print production knowledge and management experience
- Comfortable working closely with senior management and directly with agents
- Passion for creativity and sense of style
- Basic understanding of marketing and communications channels including print, online, direct, email, events management, social media and more

Thank you for considering me to become a member of your team.

Sincerely,

Emerson Johnston
