

Media Analyst Cover Letter

624 Leannon Cliff South Danialberg, IN 66995

Dear Story Reilly,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the media analyst position.

In my previous role, I was responsible for support for Media Campaign Managers and Ad Operations by compiling data which will assist in creation of best practices and improvement of current campaigns.

Please consider my experience and qualifications for this position:

- Provide application support to users of specialized software applications including Avid iNews
- Design, install and support Windows and Linux servers
- Document systems maintenance / configuration / applications, technical reference material
- Evaluate and improve existing systems and workflows
- Work on call as scheduled
- Experience with enterprise and commodity blade compute systems
- General knowledge of database servers and their performance
- Develop customized insights for all Key and Target accounts in partnership with the Sales organization

Thank you for considering me to become a member of your team.

Sincerely,

Greer Weber