Dear Azariah Rogahn,

In response to your job posting for media relations, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

Previously, I was responsible for strategic guidance and manage media relations related to store openings and other local media inquiries.

Please consider my experience and qualifications for this position:

- BA/BS in a communications-related field, with
- Exemplary command of language and writing (communications plans, press materials, executive messaging/presentations)
- Technology PR experience and media relations
- Experience with social media and web publishing tools
- Commitment to and demonstration of promoting an inclusive environment
- Experience in developing and disseminating crisis communications
- Professionalism to deal with confidential and sensitive business questions and issues
- Demonstrated experience working across geographies reporting to and collaborating with teams in multiple regions

Thank you for considering me to become a member of your team.

Sincerely,

Phoenix Stroman
