Dear Phoenix Dicki,

In response to your job posting for merchandising, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

Previously, I was responsible for appropriate and timely direction to team and business partners in order to react quickly to customer and business trends to maximize sales.

Please consider my qualifications and experience:

- Proficient with Microsoft Excel and Word, and comfortable with inventory management applications
- Distinctive product taste level
- Significant category management, merchandising and/or operations experience within a retail, wholesale or distribution environment
preferdegree sufficient to successfully perform essential job functions
- Proactive attitude of identifying and addressing issues as they arise
- Business Intelligence software experience preferred
- Higly organized and detail oriented with excellent problem solving skills
- Efficient in analyzing large volume of data from multiple reports
- Able to communicate effectively via teleconference and emails with U.S counterparts

Thank you in advance for taking the time to read my cover letter and to review my resume.

Sincerely,

Indigo Thiel
