- Requires substantial experience and contacts in the NASA market
- Demonstrated access to key NASA government customers and industry partners
- Strong, respected relationships within NASA community
- Understanding of classified risk development, mitigation and communication
- Experience developing Red-Blue Team Cyber War Scenarios and Exercises and developing the environment/infrastructure to perform these exercises
- Experience in building/advancing the capabilities of a functional Cyber Lab that includes network/server configuration, hardware procurement, simulation, and virtualization
- Understanding or past experience developing RSA NetWitness/YARA Rules
- Experience deploying/maintaining VDI/VMware

I really appreciate you taking the time to review my application for the position of NASA.

Sincerely,
