Dear Max Kautzer,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the new accounts position.

Previously, I was responsible for solutions, refer to appropriate department or staff to further assist them with their needs and enhancing the overall customer experience.

Please consider my qualifications and experience:

- Review and approval of client account updates
- Communicates clearly the process and requirements of the desk
- Collaborates with Advisors and other departments to assist with successful resolution of deficiencies
- Communicates frequently with other departments and employees to resolve escalated issues
- Performs quality assurance reviews or user acceptance testing as assigned
- Researches and resolves complex conditions
- Above average attention to detail with high level of accuracy
- Payroll as SaaS hands on experience

Thank you in advance for taking the time to read my cover letter and to review my resume.

Sincerely,

Shiloh Stehr
