55134 McClure SummitLake Clementeland, VA 57310-3411

Dear Ryan Skiles,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the photo position.

In my previous role, I was responsible for photography and video for various projects supporting recruitment, development, promotional and alumni materials for the university.

Please consider my experience and qualifications for this position:

- Daily leadership of a large staff of photo editors and photographers who work across the globe, covering all subjects
- Sophisticated news judgment and a compelling vision for how The Times can produce world-class journalism and innovative storytelling
- Sophisticated sense of design and how photography contributes to the overall visual excellence of The Times
- Deep understanding of the collaborative nature of work in the Times newsroom
- In-depth experience editing photos in a leading media or content-driven organization, including selecting, uploading and cropping images within a content management system (CMS) for digital publication purposes
- Experience sourcing and managing freelance photographers from around the world, conceptualizing and assigning ideas overseeing a photo-production budget
- Experience sourcing and appropriately crediting high-quality photography by commissioning original shoots, subscribing to select photo-subscription services and deftly searching through handouts and complimentary stock sites
- An impressive portfolio of photographs and, ideally but not necessarily, other visual formats such as illustrations, videos or multimedia

Thank you for your time and consideration.

River Bailey
