Dear Landry Cummings,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the PTP specialist position.

I reviewed the requirements of the job opening and I believe my candidacy is an excellent fit for this position. Some of the key requirements that I have extensive experience with include:

- Up to date standard knowledge of corporate and local accounting rules
- A knowledge of European language would be an asset
- Excellent communication skills including full working knowledge of written and spoken English
- Experience working with finance or accounting related products
- Preferable good experience in SAP / Ariba
- Experience with Google Docs suite of products
- Experience with a service tickets or incident management system
- Other EU language as asset

Thank you in advance for taking the time to read my cover letter and to review my resume.

Sincerely,

Casey Boyle
