

Replenishment Manager Cover Letter

3124 Pasty Garden West Melvin, RI 66975-0641

Dear Lennon Connelly,

In response to your job posting for replenishment manager, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

Previously, I was responsible for customer insight into the central supply chain team ensuring that the supply chain organization continues to meet or exceed customer expectations.

My experience is an excellent fit for the list of requirements in this job:

- Self-starter, flexible to meet challenging priorities while adhering to department timelines
- Understanding math, inventory, grocery and retail experience
- Leadership, Inventory Control
- Possess a clear understanding of retail metrics and how to impact them
- Experience in and working knowledge of the end to end supply chain
- Strong collaboration skills to build internal alignment and external relationships
- Problem-Solving capabilities that will drive efficiencies and grow the business
- Management presence based in category knowledge and customer expertise

Thank you in advance for reviewing my candidacy for this position.

Sincerely,

Corey McKenzie
