Dear Justice Bode,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the sales account management position.

In my previous role, I was responsible for total client business value and how our software products align with these objectives.

My experience is an excellent fit for the list of requirements in this job:

- Strong analytics skills, selling and negotiating experience
- Fluent written and verbal communication in Dutch and English
- Sales, Sales Operations, Account Management specific to Airline IT solutions
- Advanced consultative selling skills for Airline IT solutions
- Extensive relationships with C- level industry leaders
- Extensive knowledge and experience working in a complex, matrix, multicultural and international organization
- Successful sales and business development track record, extensive experience in exceeding sales targets
- Results-oriented quality measurement and applying appropriate measurements when applicable

Thank you for considering me to become a member of your team.

Sincerely,

Peyton Watsica
