

Sales Executive, Inside Sales Cover Letter

37367 Gibson Crossing Williamsonview, WA 95643-1254

Dear Morgan Ryan,

In response to your job posting for sales executive, inside sales, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

In my previous role, I was responsible for support for and organizes/facilitates training of commercial agents on the use of commercial specific technology and software utilized by CBCNRT.

I reviewed the requirements of the job opening and I believe my candidacy is an excellent fit for this position. Some of the key requirements that I have extensive experience with include:

- Expert in business writing/communication
- Teva products and competitor products
- A vocational qualification in business management
- A comprehensive specialist knowledge of logistics, particularly in transportation, freight forwarding or shipping
- Enjoy working with customers and a solution-oriented approach
- A reliable, trustworthy and serious presentation on the telephone
- Intermediate level user of Microsoft Office Applications
- Strong understanding of airfares and pricing product/development and distribution highly preferred

Thank you in advance for taking the time to read my cover letter and to review my resume.

Sincerely,

Rory Heaney
