

Sales Manager Europe Cover Letter

7218 Federico CourtsBentontown, IN 18762

Dear Tatum Lubowitz,

In response to your job posting for sales manager europe, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

In my previous role, I was responsible for category expertise and leadership for the US Distributor Private Label Potato portfolio including business fundamentals, industry trends, market structure, segment/customer needs and competitive landscape.

I reviewed the requirements of the job opening and I believe my candidacy is an excellent fit for this position. Some of the key requirements that I have extensive experience with include:

- Computer fluent, with specific attention to e-mail and Microsoft Office product skills
- Test & Measurement industry experience is preferred
- Experienced in solution selling and services sales
- Exceptional client facing abilities
- Capable of building a first class sales channel
- Manage a sales team of 2 people, (Technical sales, administration)
- Maintain a high level of solution expertise and competitive intelligence around the eClinicalOS platform of products
- Guide team members to identify decision makers and influencers amongst the targeted leads in order to initiate the sales process

Thank you in advance for taking the time to read my cover letter and to review my resume.

Sincerely,

Emerson Gislason
