Dear Armani Davis,

In response to your job posting for scrum master, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

In my previous role, I was responsible for servant leadership to the team, garners respect from team(s) and is willing to get hands dirty to get the job done.

Please consider my experience and qualifications for this position:

- Agile Development Tools proficiency such as JIRA Greenhopper
- Extensive hands-on experience in producing and managing backlogs with Product Owners, creating release plans etc
- Full SDLC experience in a dynamic collaborative environment
- Planning Sprints including estimation & dependency identification
- Full agile environment in multiple project streams
- Enthusiasm for scrum principles and approaches
- Planning Sprints including work flows & dependency identification
- Sprint and release progress updates to teams, Programme Manager and PMO

Thank you for considering me to become a member of your team.

Sincerely,

Emery Kuhn
