Dear Justice Hand,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the senior full stack developer position.

In my previous role, I was responsible for leadership and/or direction and/or supervision to lower level employees and teams; Leads large technical tasks and large teams and projects.

Please consider my experience and qualifications for this position:

- Proficient understanding of chart libraries (Open source or commercial)
- Demonstrable knowledge of architecting microservice-like platforms
- Deep understanding and interest in a wide range of technologies and design patterns
- Experience with front-end technologies—React and Redux a bonus
- Experience using and debugging JavaScript, preferably using AngularJS
- Knowledge of applicable methodologies, tools, standards and procedures
- Knowledge of cloud application developments
- Good understand on enterprise security architecture, quartly and monthly deliveries

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Quinn Muller
