Dear Story Lebsack,

In response to your job posting for senior scrum master, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

In my previous role, I was responsible for guidance and facilitation on Agile processes to Agile team: facilitates transparency, inspection and adaptation, leads daily scrum, sprint review, and planning meetings in a way that ensures full team engagement.

My experience is an excellent fit for the list of requirements in this job:

- Developer nanodegree
- Good J2EE fundamentals
- Experience in risk, change and scope management
- Experience with finance controls (Sox, PCI)
- Delivery of Several Epics, Releases and versions
- Aggregate scrum team objectives that are easily consumable to business partners and all team members to ensure visibility and transparency
- Experience in software development projects using and Jenkins or other continuous integration tools
- Familiarity with project life cycle models or phase gate approaches

Thank you for considering me to become a member of your team.

Sincerely,

Dylan Koss
