Dear Emerson Daugherty,

In response to your job posting for strategic partnership, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

In the previous role, I was responsible for support and assistance in one or several of the following marketing areas -- market research (identification and interpretation of key business trends and findings unique to the industry), development and design of company and business unit marketing literature (brochures, advertisements, annual reports, etc.), review and update of the marketing infrastructure which may include a database system, intranet, and external web site.

I reviewed the requirements of the job opening and I believe my candidacy is an excellent fit for this position. Some of the key requirements that I have extensive experience with include:

- Operational and business development experience, with a good track record of working at a managerial level
- Strong knowledge and experience with technology and its impact on the targeted audience of finance professionals
- Understanding of internal business processes and how to implement new work processes
- Strong verbal and written communication skills including diplomacy, active listening, and presentation skills
- CGMA designation
- Relevant experience in working with, supporting or liaising with (Regulatory) contract organizations

Sincerely,

Stevie Gulgowski
