Dear Avery Wisoky,

Please consider me for the strategy consulting opportunity. I am including my resume that lists my qualifications and experience.

Please consider my qualifications and experience:

- Prior experience in one of the target sectors (banking, insurance, capital markets) would be an advantage
- Portfolio demonstrating successful execution of UX/UI design, data visualizations, or graphic facilitation across devices
- Comprehensive understanding of design principles across platforms
- Excellence command of Thai & English or Japanese language
- Knowledge of the Telecoms or Financial Services sector would be beneficial
- Be part of expanding a dynamic, fast growing, top tier strategy consulting practice
- Engage directly with high profile clients on their most important and challenging business issues and driving their innovation, growth and transformation agendas

I really appreciate you taking the time to review my application for the position of strategy consulting.
