Dear Sam Bartell,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the testing senior manager position.

In my previous role, I was responsible for thought leadership in test automation and performance testing by suggesting improvements in automation coverage and performance measurements.

Please consider my experience and qualifications for this position:

- Coordinate with internal and external stakeholders including Capital Management, Finance along with US and Canadian based TBSM teams
- Management of TBSM Stress Testing's model and estimation approach end state plan
- Deep understanding or experience with statistical design of experiments and sampling
- Understanding of internal control frameworks, including objective/transactional and control testing other compliance testing and monitoring activities
- Possess a strong understanding of banking systems and processes
- Strong knowledge of commercial or consumer lending, including familiarity with applicable federal and state regulations, such as ECOA, FCRA, TILA, FDCPA, UDAP, GLBA/Privacy, OFAC and 3rd party vendor management
- Proven experience implementing an institutional quality Testing & Monitoring program, 3rd party management
- Help drive the mindset that Compliance is a strategic advantage, enabling growth and customer delight

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
