

Trainer, Sales Cover Letter

638 Keenan Expressway New Sandy, CA 79270-2056

Dear Blake Kuhic,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the trainer, sales position.

Previously, I was responsible for feedback to call center management team and other appropriate staff regarding training needs and overall class performance and expected attrition rate of class.

I reviewed the requirements of the job opening and I believe my candidacy is an excellent fit for this position. Some of the key requirements that I have extensive experience with include:

- Conduct productive meetings
- Field, or home office, sales training experience is preferred
- Experienced in achieving customer satisfaction and growing existing customer base
- Experience with content creation/instructional design
- Previous coaching one on one and in a team setting
- Needs Analysis training completion and deploying solutions
- Experience building rapport and consulting with business leaders in a corporate environment
- Needs analysis and Instructor-led training design experience

I really appreciate you taking the time to review my application for the position of trainer, sales.

Sincerely,

Parker Greenfelder
