

Trainer, Sales Cover Letter

948 Roma Expressway
Ratons, NC 03909

Dear Baylor Turcotte,

In response to your job posting for trainer, sales, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

In my previous role, I was responsible for appropriate motivational techniques to promote team building and to increase team and Call Center morale.

Please consider my experience and qualifications for this position:

- Insurance background will be given strong consideration
- Prefer professional experience in sales training role, or experience in a market-facing sales role
- Work hard, play hard mentality to energize the sales teams
- Extremely organized – enjoys making lists
- Adaptable and flexible – responds well to change
- Seeks feedback/constantly strives to improve, and delivers feedback professionally and constructively
- This role requires a high energy, motivational individual
- Successful in providing leadership training and mentoring to all sales management

Thank you in advance for taking the time to read my cover letter and to review my resume.

Sincerely,

Riley Raynor
