Dear Sutton Abernathy,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the user experience analyst position.

In my previous role, I was responsible for development teams with feedback on the quality of user experience through expert reviews and prototyping.

I reviewed the requirements of the job opening and I believe my candidacy is an excellent fit for this position. Some of the key requirements that I have extensive experience with include:

- In-depth knowledge of client/server and Open Systems Environment (Linux, Windows), graphic design software and tools such as Adobe CS4/5, 3DStudio Max, Maya, Flash, Photoshop, Illustrator, Flex, Dreamweaver, HTML, DHTML, XHTML, CSS, JavaScript, and equivalents
- Strong knowledge of Microsoft products (Office, IE, Windows)
- Strong knowledge of PC and related hardware (Apple, Dell, HP, Toshiba, Microsoft products)
- Experience with Mobile device support iPhones, iPads
- Experience with broad suite of statistical methods, including regression analysis, factor analysis, clustering techniques, design of experiment, and others
- Experience using excel to manage datasets and conduct analysis
- Knowledge of an object-oriented programming language (Java, Python, Ruby)
- Knowledge of social networking, development platforms, or the CRM space

I really appreciate you taking the time to review my application for the position of user experience analyst.

Sincerely,
