Dear Justice Zboncak,

In response to your job posting for UX visual designer, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

In my previous role, I was responsible for design and UX input to our web CMS component library, ensuring design consistency, accessibility, and reusability.

Please consider my qualifications and experience:

- Compelling visual storyteller who can educate entertain
- Knowledgeable in maintaining and extending brand identity systems and holistic customer-centric design process
- Experience with codifying and training/mentoring junior staff on visual design direction
- Fluency in current graphic visual design practices (Adobe Creative Cloud/Suite and Sketch)
- Understand and enjoy typographic and illustration principals/foundations
- Communicates effectively and concisely in all email and verbal correspondence
- Self-disciplined and motivated in an environment that requires a strong attention to detail
- Punctual and responsive to meetings and requests

Thank you for considering me to become a member of your team.

Sincerely,

Avery Littel
