

VP, Corporate Communications Cover Letter

709 Loyd Field North Darryl, WA 22110

Dear Reese Daugherty,

I submit this application to express my sincere interest in the VP, corporate communications position.

In the previous role, I was responsible for executive communication support to the leadership team in Mumbai and Bangalore across a variety of internal, external, client, and media communications opportunities.

My experience is an excellent fit for the list of requirements in this job:

- Proactively partner with investors to ensure Akebia's senior team is actively listening to and transparent with shareholders & analysts as a component of our ongoing organizational plan to drive long-term shareholder value
- In partnership with other departments, monitor competitor, regulatory, and broader external environment to understand potential impact on Akebia's business
- Ensure overall planning and execution of external communications are timely, accurate, and effective to include the develop all investor relations-related communications such as investor presentations and materials and maintenance of the Investor Relations website and Corporate Presentation
- Member of Akebia Disclosure Committee
- In-depth knowledge of the financial and investment markets
- Actively drives strong teamwork and collaboration with an enterprise-wide perspective
- Understands and values importance of compliance
- Experience with different storytelling approaches

Thank you in advance for taking the time to read my cover letter and to review my resume.

Sincerely,