Dear River Smitham,

In response to your job posting for web applications developer, I am including this letter and my resume for your review.

Previously, I was responsible for nET development of projects involving application development, migrations, and additions to existing applications.

My experience is an excellent fit for the list of requirements in this job:

- Detailed RDB knowledge
- Deep user knowledge of Microsoft Office
- Backend development related experience
- Software planning experience
- Understanding complex system and business processes
- Good at communication (Fluency in English)
- Flexibility, fast adoption of changes
- Familiarity with Javascript frameworks (Angular, Ember, React, Vue)

Thank you in advance for taking the time to read my cover letter and to review my resume.

Sincerely,

Denver Bergnaum
