Our company is growing rapidly and is looking to fill the role of access manager. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for access manager

- Orientar a los líderes de cuenta de acuerdo a los valores, procesos y políticas de Shire
- Asegurar la disponibilidad del producto de manera oportuna y eficiente en cada hospital
- Perform daily health checks of Identity and Access Management (IAM) platform to help ensure service is operating at optimum levels
- Responsibility for the operation of SSO solution for Lufthansa Group
- Serve as the IAM subject matter expert, trusted advisor
- Prepare for and lead recurring key meetings to include technical, cross-functional and stakeholder meetings
- Work to understand the IT enterprise architecture and communicate with architecture teams to ensure that IAM security standards are created and adopted into the Enterprise Architecture frameworks
- Understand current emerging security threats and design IAM architecture to mitigate threats where possible
- Collect and interpret scientific arguments that support the value of our medicines
- Conduct Root Cause Analysis (RCA) of registration process reviewing technology, personnel and processes

Qualifications for access manager

- Strong large scale ERP project experience

- Our ideal candidate has a Master degree/PhD in a relevant field (Business administration, Economics, Health Economics, Pharmacy, Public Health)
- You have gained at least 5-6 years of pharma industry experience with positions in the area of market access, pricing and reimbursement within Turkey
- Would be an asset if experience in clinical research, interaction between medical/marketing/sales
- Fluent in both written and spoken Turkish and English, German language skills being a plus