

Example of Advisor, Safety Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of advisor, safety. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for advisor, safety

- Provide front line general SHE advice on a day-to-day operational basis
- Provide advice on the SHE Strategy
- Access specialist support, on behalf of customers, from other areas of the business
- Sustaining relationships with local and country wide partnerships with fire departments, regulators
- Provide operational and functional management with advice on the prevention of accidents, ill health, environmental incidents and the practical implementation of the 82O SHEW Approach document and related policies
- Undertake site SHEW inspections as required
- When requested, advise on the preparation of SHEW risk assessments and Method Statements
- Ensure that appropriate Project SHEW performance reports are provided as required by Delivery North
- Obtain competency cards in line with company Competence Card Compliance policy, CSCS/CCNSG
- Have previous experience of working within the Water Industry for a demanding client and knowledge of Street works is ideal for this role

Qualifications for advisor, safety

- Bachelor's Degree in Occupational Safety (desired), or Bachelor's degree with relevant experience in Safety is a requirement

- Ability to manage new safety program development and implementation
- Ability to conduct regulatory and management system assessments
- Ability to communicate well to different levels of the organization and regulatory entities
- Ability to facilitate, manage, and coordinate large groups