

Example of Agriculture Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking to fill the role of agriculture. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for agriculture

- To develop skills in hand tools and labor processes used on a small scale sustainable market farm
- To learn how to make nutrient recommendations based in soil testing results that are appropriate for a sustainable agriculture setting
- Collaborate with relevant stakeholders (Farmers, local leaders, Ministry of Agriculture, other NGOs) to ensure appropriate programming strategies are developed, refined and implemented for the target population
- Assists in administering the FSA program for the state
- Receives information regarding law changes
- Acts as liaison with USDA-FSIS Federal State Audit Branch for the equal to state meat and poultry inspection program and the USDA-FSIS Select Establishment Coordinator for the Cooperative Interstate Shipment Meat Inspection Program
- Manages reported data from field staff (e.g., PHIS data reports, field logs, drive times, processing times, kill floor times, employee leave usage, employee overtime and compensatory earnings)
- Represents the Meat Inspection Division in various outside boards and/or organizations (e.g., Strategic Analysis Information Center, Ohio State University HACCP and SSOP training association)
- Coordinates and schedules training programs (e.g., Master of Public Health, Veterinary interns)
- Attends trainings and participates in and conducts meetings

Qualifications for agriculture

- Ensure communications, coordination, reporting and meetings are completed as a precondition for effective and efficient repossession and remarketing
- Demonstrated ability to deliver results in a culture shift of continuous improvement and optimization
- Poultry or farm management business experience is a plus
- B Degree in Commerce/Marketing /Agricultural or Economics
- Working knowledge of risk mitigation, assessment
- Able to interface with clients on a MD/FD level- These customer contact points will have high expectations of the Relationship Manager in terms of professionalism, ability to add value to their business and find innovative solutions to their needs