

Example of Ambulance Driver Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking for an ambulance driver. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for ambulance driver

- Assist in the ED by accurately and timely documentation using ASAP
- Actively advocates, precepts and coaches EMS and nursing students and new employees to the department
- Carry out any other duties relevant to the role as directed by Control and/or the Depot Manager
- Receive report of incoming ambulance and aircraft patients, convey pertinent information to the Charge Nurse and in the case of the air medical, ensure that necessary assistance is available for unloading
- Effectively utilize time when not actively involved in patient care by maintaining Environment of Care and Point of Care Standards, supply and room stocking and preparation and equipment checks
- Maintain proficiency in radio/satellite communications and maintain open lines of communication with the CareFlight communication center
- Be responsible for familiarity and effective utilization of prevention and intervention techniques for interaction with violent, mentally disturbed, head injured and intoxicated patients
- Actively advocate, precept and coach EMS and nursing students and new employees to the department

Qualifications for ambulance driver

- Greater than 2 years experience
- EMT-B

- Must be able to lift and carry 125 pounds per OEMS regulations
- Must be able to remain calm during stressful situations