Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of analyst, cyber security. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for analyst, cyber security

- Coordinate with both internal and external auditors to assist with and respond to audit findings
- Participate in creating and executing an Identity and Access Management strategy to address SRP's evolving needs
- Third level support for security incident handling, support escalations and develop remediation plan
- Reduce false positives by tuning of detection policies
- Quality assurance, review event handling and improving analyst workflows
- Close interaction with IT development around bugs and platform enhancements
- Liaise with the Threat Library team to enhance correlation use cases
- Support the incubation phase of new products and services
- Maintaining the currency of each program's security documentation
- Entering documentation completed and submitted in eMASS for system changes

Qualifications for analyst, cyber security

- Needs to have an understanding of threat vectors exfiltration techniques
- Nexpose Rapid 7 Vulnerability Scanner
- Previous experience in troubleshooting day-to-day operational processes such as report generation, data verification, data correlation
- Follows existing processes and procedures, and propose updates to such

- Hands on system administraqtion experience with various operating systems including Windows, AIX, BSD, z/OS, RHEL, SUSE, HPUX, QNX