

Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of analyst global finance. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for analyst global finance

- Provide ad hoc research and analysis, and prepare related presentations for GSC and Finance leadership
- Act as finance resource for the GCP team
- Coordinate monthly forecast and annual budget submissions, framing up risks and opportunities and presenting them to senior management
- Develop and maintain effective relationships with Brand, GapLabs, and Corporate Finance teams, Corporate Shared Service Center, and GCP business partners
- Contribute to ad hoc decision support needs and strategic financial discussions as required by the Director of Finance, VP of Finance, and SVP of GCP
- Partner with GCP marketing and Brand Finance teams in analyzing the effectiveness of key marketing initiatives and campaigns that support the credit card and gift card businesses
- Provide decision support by comparing performance of marketing events over time to synthesize themes and best practices to inform the GCP Team, and Brand Marketing/Finance teams in future action planning
- Coordinate with Marketing and other business partners to ensure Brand performance metrics reflect the potential impact of all planned marketing events/activities
- Assist in development and update of financial recaps and communicate to relevant parts of the company to support GCP activities and marketing spend
- Assist with preparation and monitoring of Revenue/COGs/OPEX to achieve

Qualifications for analyst global finance

- Review requests for payment by third parties including property managers and vendors
- Review capital draw requests associated with development projects
- Participate in the preparation and/or review of the quarterly reports for separate account assets
- Strong accounting skills are essential
- Commerce graduates with 2-4 years of work experience in Finance and Accounting process
- Must be very organized and able to multitask and often work independently